The present incumbents holding the post of DSS and Superintending Surveyor (Defence Stream) shall be eligible for consideration for promotion to the grade of Director (Functional Grade) (JAG) as a one time relaxation .	In the existing RR, 1989, The Defence Officers who have completed 13 years of commissioned service may be promoted to Director without holding the post of Dy. Director. Now, In the new RR, the Defence Officers have to hold the post of Dy. Director before being promoted to Director. Hence, this provision is being proposed to safeguard the interest of Defence Officers who are holding the post of Dy. Superintending Surveyor and Superintending Surveyor.
(a)	All those officers (Defence/Civil), who would have got promotion on the basis of the integrated seniority but who get left out on account of separate seniority, would be covered by creating supernumerary posts (and in addition in granting equivalent acting/substantive Army Ranks in case of Defence Officers).	Deleted	As there is no combined seniority of Civil and Defence Stream officers, hence the provision of creation of supernumerary post is being deleted.
(b)	There is no wide disparity between the existing officers in the two streams for promotions to a particular level i.e. the difference in the year of allotment/seniority of the Junior - most officers for comparison at each level is not than one year. However, if there is any case of vide disparity, the affected officer(s) would be covered by creating supernumerary posts (and in addition by granting equivalent acting / substantive Army Ranks in case of Defence Officers.	Deleted	As there is no combined seniority of Civil and Defence Stream officers, hence the provision of creation of supernumerary post is being deleted.
(c)	Other affected Defence officer(s)who get superseded by junior Civilian Officer in the combined list but are otherwise fir for promotion - not covered under (a)	Deleted	Not relevant in the present circumstances as there is no combined seniority of Civil and Defence Stream officers.

& (b) above - will be granted local rank equivalent to the post occupied by junior civilian officer. This would not entitle them to any rank pay or other allowances of supernumerary local rank.
